
exposure

TRAVEL PHOTOGRAPHER OF THE YEAR | News

12.02.08

The exposure gallery this month is playing host to the highly regarded and world renowned winning images from the 2007 International Travel Photographer of the Year competition. The exhibition will be on display from February 5th-28th.

Photographers from 51 countries competed for the £50,000+ prize package. The overall winner was Cat Vinton from London (above), and entrants from Australia, Canada, Finland, India, Poland, Switzerland, the UK and USA were amongst the category prize winners which can all be seen in the gallery in an exhibition that is definitely a must see for travel and photography enthusiasts alike.

The judging panel included the editors of Germany's fotoMAGAZIN, British Journal of Photography, Hotshoe International and Professional Photographer, the travel editor of Tatler, photography director of Conde Nast Traveller, and photographers Charlie Waite, Nick Meers and Jeremy Hoare.

For further press information please contact Karen Coe on 01728 669185 or email press@tpoty.com

For further information on exhibiting at the exposure gallery please contact Sam on sam@exposure.net

Links:

<http://www.tpoty.com/>